A Taste of Colombia
Jan 9-17, 2016

9 days and 8 nights in beautiful Colombia

Only a short 5 hr direct flight from Newark Liberty Airport. We'll spend 5 nights in the heart of the historic Candelaria District of Bogota and 3 nights in the UNSECO World Heritage Village of Villa de Leyva, a 450 year old Spanish Colonial town complete with central plaza and cathedral.

$1499 includes direct airfare* from Newark Liberty, 5 nights in the beautifully renovated 3 star Casa Deco Hotel in Bogota, 3 nights in the Antonio Narino Hotel in Villa de Leyva, all transfers in Colombia, breakfast daily, pre-departure meeting and the services of our Spanish speaking native Colombian guide, Manuel Fresneda of Terra Cafe in Easton.

Things to know

- While Bogota sits very near the equator, it is 8600 feet' above sea level in the Andes mountains.
- The average daily temperature in February is a balmy 70 degrees and sunny
- Colombia is the next big thing... business is booming and tourism is on the rise. Discover it now.
- Beer is booming!!! The Bogota Beer Co. makes some nice Belgian styles!
- Bogota is quickly becoming South America's newest culinary darling.

Things to do

- Salsa dancing in Bogota!
- The Gold Museum. A national treasure.
- Visit a coffee plantation and Hacienda.
- Enjoy the open air market in Villa de Leyva.
- Hike to the waterfalls in the surrounding mountains.
- Ride the cable car to Monserrate and look down on Bogota from 10,000 feet above sea level.
- Go horseback riding in the Andes
- Visit the underground cathedral of Zipaquirá, carved out of a salt mine.
